Lounge Collection

Relaxed and refined – the Flo Lounge Collection has a poised stance and confident character. Defined contours along with the fine details and outstanding upholstery have created a sculpted form that is soft and alluring.

Artistry of Upholstery

Flo has an understated opulence - a sofa and chair collection offering ample seating space and high levels of comfort, along with a strong, structural aesthetic that will hold its shape for years.

Its low profile reflects a relaxed, confident poise, while the envelope shaped arms have a soft, pillow like contour with large pinch stitch detail on the vertical lines.

Future Consideration

Using high quality materials, the seat, back and arms will retain their elegant shape for years to come, and the injection moulding technology used for Flo's uniquely sculpted arms reduce the waste associated with a cut foam manufacturing process.

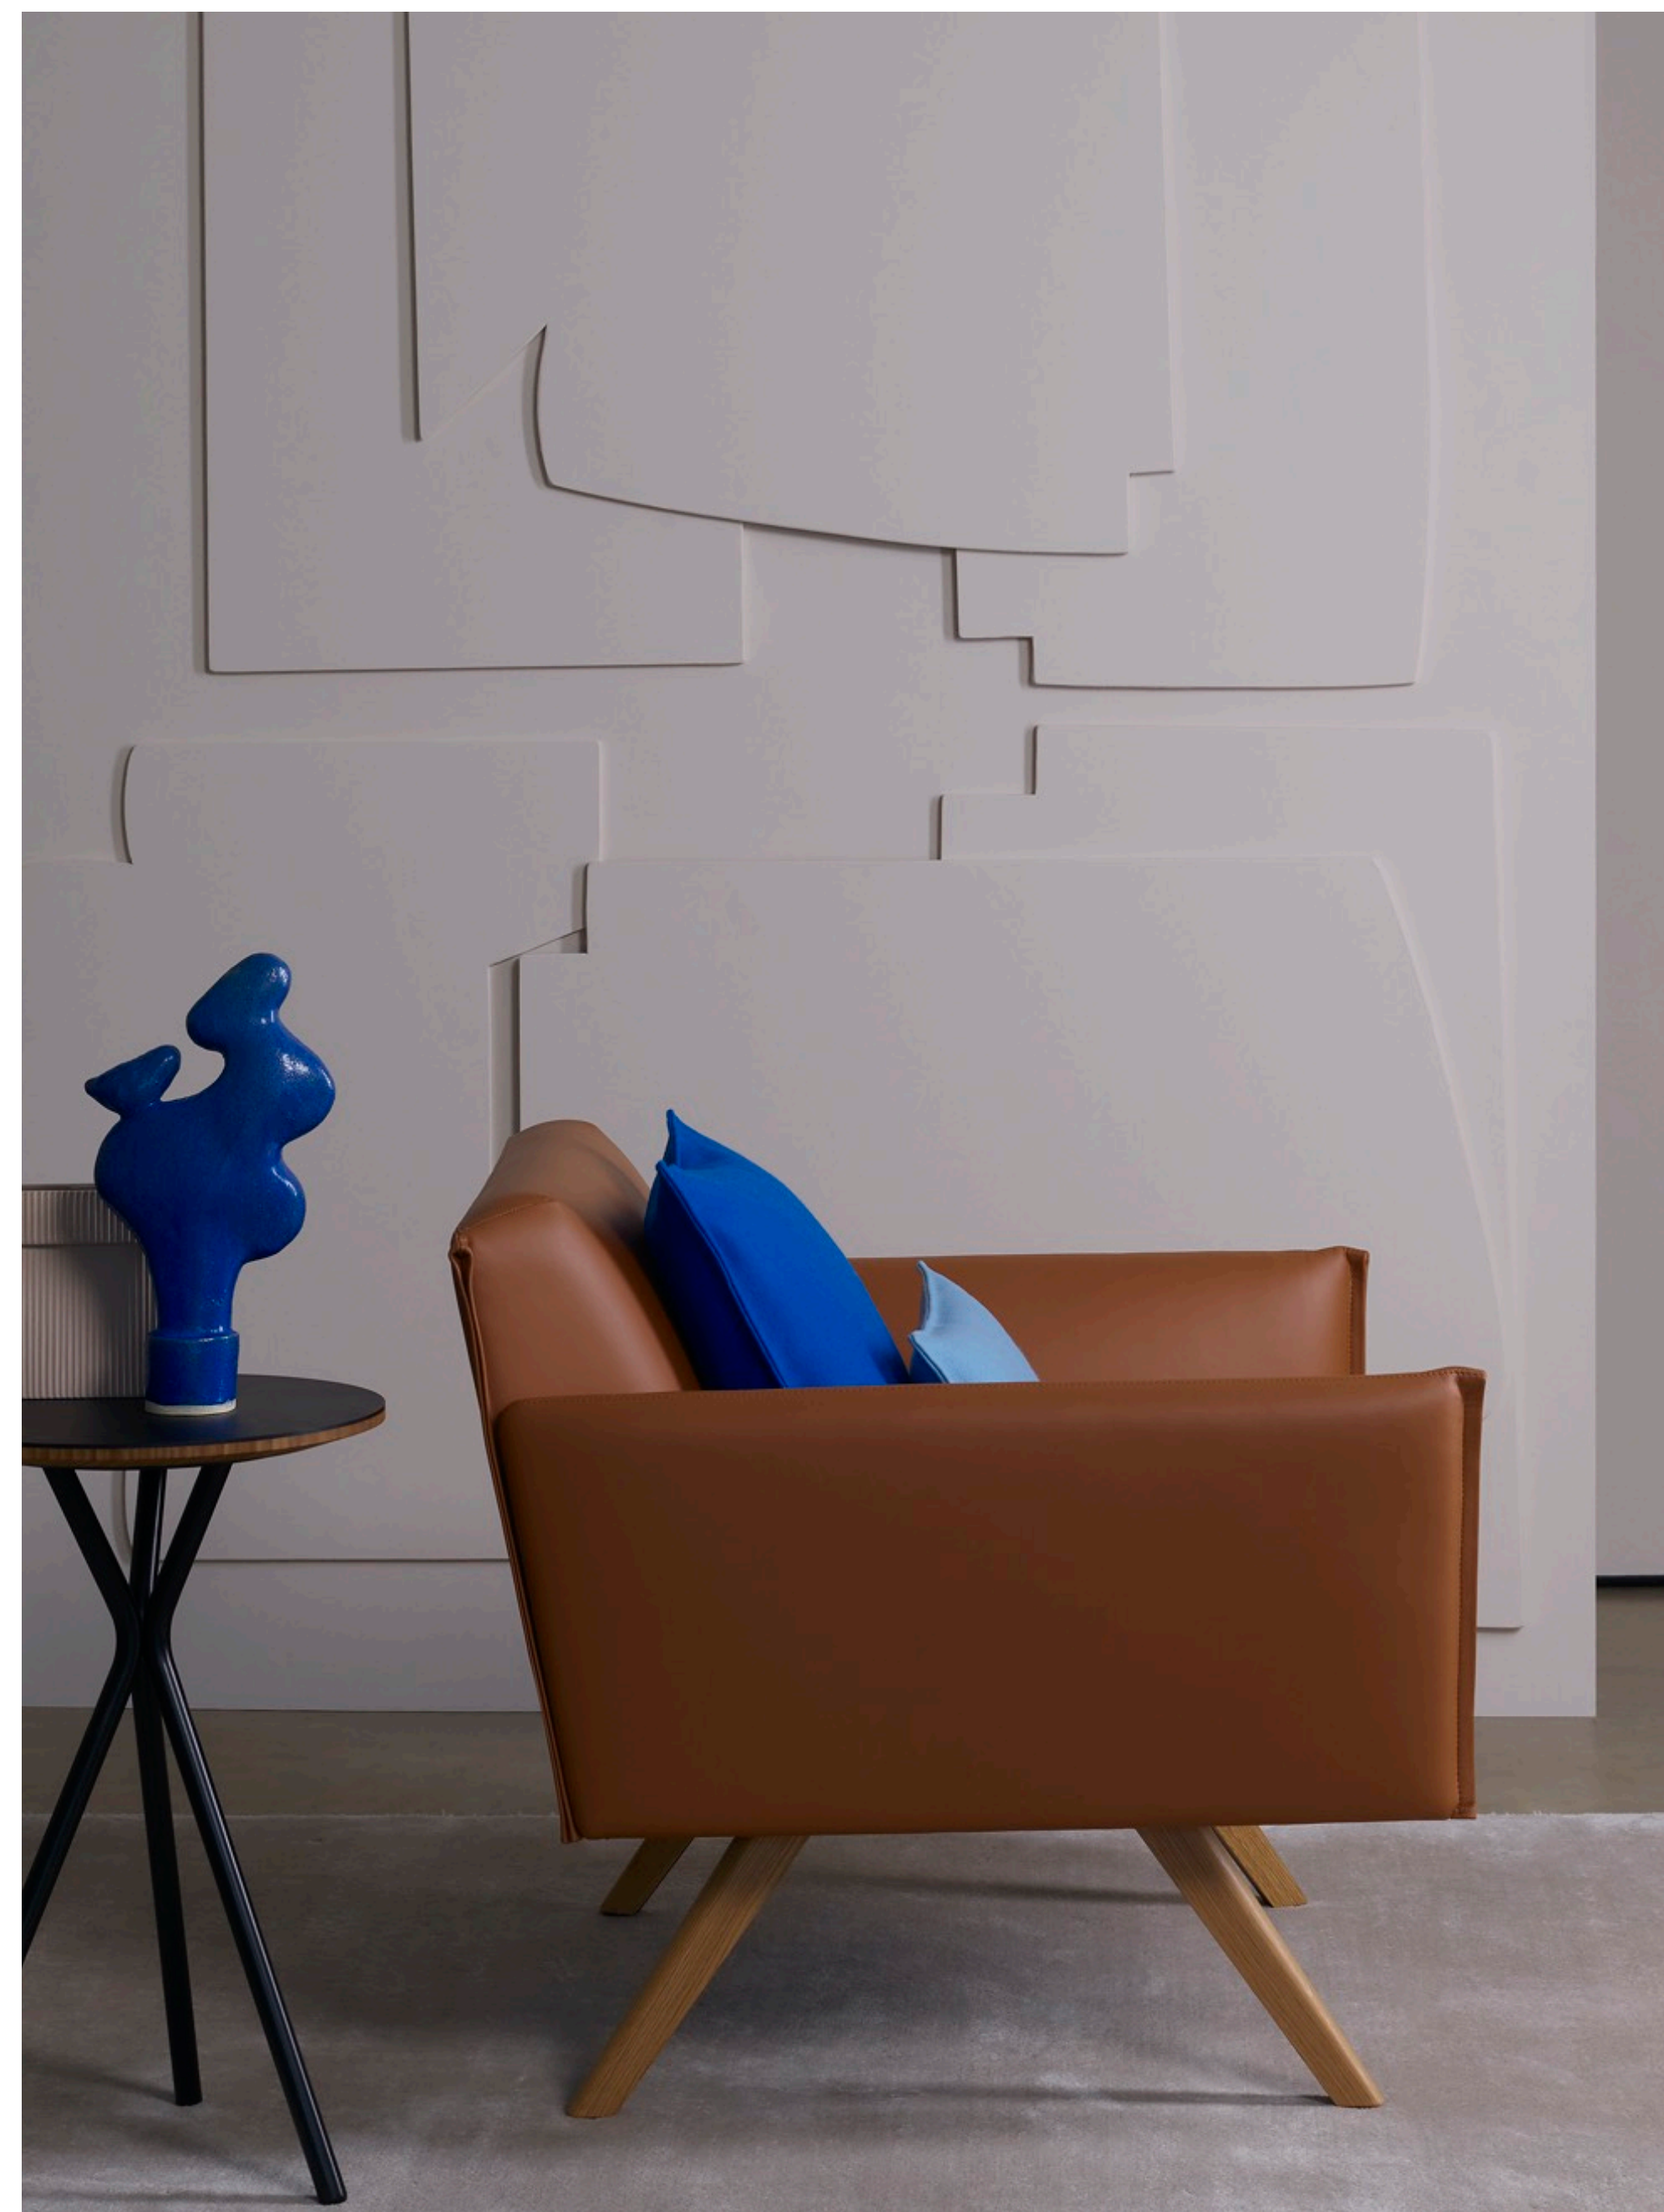

The Flo chair and sofa can be disassembled, each element of the collection has been designed for reupholstery. When it's time to refurbish, Flo seating will be easy to re-cover to embrace its second life.

Devotion to detail

Flo's sophisticated character is expressed through its upholstery and its finer details. The pillowy arms chamfer at each end with an exaggerated pinch stitch giving both sofa and chair a unique outward face, while the rear edge of the arm merges neatly with the structured back. The minimal silhouette is softened by its timber leg detail, introducing a whisper of nature to the design.
